The Institute of Political Science invites applications for a position as a

Postdoctoral Researcher (f/m) (Salary Scale A13 NBesO, 100 %) assigned to the Chair for Comparative and German Politics to be appointed from 01.10.2017 or later. The position is initially limited to three years.

Responsibilities and duties

Responsibilities and duties include a weekly teaching load of 4hrs in the M.A./B.A. program (28 weeks annually) in English or German. This means two courses in the winter term (October-January) and two courses in the summer term (April-July). Additionally, work on publications in international academic journals and development of research projects is required. Research interests should connect to the existing research activities of the Chair on the German constitutional court, German legislation or comparative analysis of political institutions and systems. In addition to the resources provided by the University, an individual annual budget for travel and research assistance is available.

Payment

The payment is according to the payment scale for civil servants (Niedersächsische Besoldungsordnung) of the State of Lower Saxony (Niedersachsen) in the payment category A13. The position is full-time.

Employment conditions

To qualify for the position, applicants must have completed their PhD with an excellent dissertation in Political Science or a related discipline within the last three years. Statistical skills and experience with R or Stata are required. Skills in quantitative text analysis and/or Data Mining are desired.

Part-time employment can be arranged on request.

As an equal opportunities employer, Leibniz Universität Hannover intends to promote women and men in the context of statutory requirements. For this reason suitably qualified women are specifically invited to apply. Equally qualified applicants with disabilities will be given preferential treatment.
